Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I pray this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. As we approach the holiday season, I want to extend my heartfelt wishes for a blessed Christmas and a New Year filled with hope and joy. My family and our ministry in Cambodia are deeply grateful for your continued prayers and generous support. Your partnership means so much to us, and we are truly thankful for the impact you've helped us make here.

We are delighted to share that in October, we were able to provide bags, complete sets of school supplies, uniforms, and slippers to deserving students. This initiative has been a tremendous blessing to their families and has made a significant impact on the students themselves. By meeting these essential needs, we have seen an encouraging boost in their motivation, allowing them to focus more on their studies and strive for greater success.

As I shared in our previous report, Maly is a candidate for baptism, and we are overjoyed to announce that her eldest son and daughter have also made the decision to be baptized. We baptized them at the pond in our church yard. They joined four other students who have been faithfully attending our church for the past year. Praise the Lord for this beautiful expression of faith and commitment.

As I also mentioned in our previous report, we had hoped to travel to the Philippines for my brother's wedding, where I had the honor of being the officiating minister. We are deeply grateful to God, as He has provided us with the necessary funds for our entire family to purchase our plane tickets. This has been made possible through the generosity of kind-hearted individuals who answered God's call. By His grace, the wedding was a beautiful success, and we are also excited to take this opportunity to spend Christmas and New Year in the Philippines with loved ones.

Due to our upcoming trip to the Philippines, we held our Christmas celebrations early at our church in Cambodia. It was a joyful time of fellowship as we shared simple gifts with everyone, while also taking a moment to reflect on the greatest gift of all—the gift of salvation that God has so generously given us. It was a meaningful occasion, reminding us of the true reason for the season and the abundant blessings we have in Christ.
