Dear Pastor and Church Family,

DEPUTATION UPDATE:

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! I hope this letter finds you all well and blessed. First of all I wanted to praise the Lord for His goodness and faithfulness in our lives! He is worthy and greatly to be praise!

I am excited that I can once again give an update to what has God been working on in my life as a missionary doing deputation for the month of October.

As we all know from the last week of September up until to this day has not been a great time here in the area of East Tennessee and Western North Carolina because of the storm. I am heart broken to what happened in our area (Elizabethton, TN) and neighboring States and towns. I never imagine in my life that I will witness flooding on the mountains. We saw how terrible the storm took businesses, livestocks, houses, churches, and even lives. But on other side of things I am completely amazed on how the believers stepped up and helped one another, how the believers are most eager to worship God more than ever! Praise the Lord!

Me and my fellow missionaries have the privilege to lend a little help in a church in our area. Although the church took a lot of damages the church is still standing and working a lot of rebuild and renovations.

For this month of deputation I had three (3) appointments/meetings that were cancelled due to the storm. However, the Lord still blessed and manage to still visit other churches and have the privilege to share my burden. As of the moment there five (5) churches that promise me to take on support. It's a great blessing because we are about to head back to the Philippines next month.

As we continue our remaining week of deputation, continue to pray for me specially to pray for the churches that promise and to the church that's praying and asking the Lord for guidance. As of the moment we're still in 50% but as I always say, I know the Lord will provide. I wanted to thank you for your love, prayers, and continued support!

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO...

The last time I sent out a report/newsletter I wrote I have less than two months before heading back to the Philippines. But now, I only have a little over a week before heading back to home. I am set to back to the Philippines this November 11th. I am amazed on how the years have quickly passed. I got here first in the United States as a College student and now heading back and to do the work of our Lord. I am unworthy, incapable, undeserving, sinner and yet the Lord still saved me and even use me for his cause. I don't know how that happened but the only thing I know is it's only by His Grace. I am thankful for God's grace! I am excited to be back home and I am eager to go back and be able to start His work.

And before I end this letter I want to say this once again and will never be tired of thank you Pastor and church family. The Lord blessed me with the privilege to meet you. You have been a great blessing in my life. Thank you for your unwavering love, sacrifices, and prayers. Thank you for giving to the Lord! Just like what the Bible says, your labor will never be in vain in the Lord! I know the Lord will bless you!

1 Chronicles 16:34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; For his mercy endureth for ever.
